The Jews, the Israelites, the Hebrews, the Zionists Their legends, truths and their country's destiny MOHAMED ALI EL FARRA

this book intends to correct commonly widespread misconceptions and fallacies in the world around us. Regrettably, these fallacies are still taught to date in our historical, cultural and educational curricular across all our education institutions; be it universities, schools or institutes.

An author and a poet, Johann Wolfgang von Goethe (1749-1832) is one of the key figures in the German and world literature. He is also lauded as one of the unique and remarkable peaks of world literature that has ever been of all times. What is noticeable in looking into this eminent writer's life is his attitude towards the East, especially the Islamic Arabic East.

Ghassan Kanafani: The aesthetics of narrative discourse SOBHIA AUDI ZOROB

This is a remarkable critique looking into Ghassan Kanafani's narrative experience. Kanafani is considered as a major figure in Palestinian and Arab literature. This critique brings us to Ghassan Kanafani as an open book and a renewed lesson from which we obtain confidence in the pure and sincere creativity. Ghassan Kanafani is revived each time we recall him. Here, in Dr. Sabiha Audeh's book, he is featured in one of his many revived images and revelations.

The Delight of Bu Met'eb's Eye
DR. MUSSA YAKDUB KASSEM

This is a novel that brings out the latent emotions, and explores the unseen of our sensibilities... and distinctly uncovers what is hidden. The author could move between the different worlds and reproduce reality; not to narrate it as it appears to be, but, indeed, to observe it in an astonishing and brilliant manner and style....

The Open Palestinian 'Holocaust' Encyclopedia
NAWAF ALZARD

We seek, in the Open Palestinian Holocaust Encyclopedia, a holocaust open since more than a century of the Zionist terrorism and mass slaughter, to cover a wider area of the Zionist massacres and crimes evidenced with irrefutable data, facts, documents and live testimonies; to revive the Arab national memory and protect from oblivion.

The Arab World DR. ALI MAHJOUBI

The Gap between the West and the East widened during the 18th century owing to the modern European Renaissance. This gap reached its peak during the 19th century with the advent of the Industrial Revolution in Western countries. This led to the colonization of the Arab World. However, Arab peoples didn't surrender and reacted by struggling for freedom, dignity and land.

Arabs' Attitude CHAFIA HADDAD

This book is regarded as the first Arab academic study on the issue of the attitude of Arabs to the oppressed peoples. The book promotes a new image of the Arab-Muslim civilization in its relationship with the oppressed during the three centuries following the advent of Islam.

Jerusalem MAHMOUD CHOUKEIR

The Palestinian-Israeli conflict is recurrent throughout Mahmoud Choukeir's book, Jerusalem. The author tackles the issue of the return to the Palestinian territories in such a way that the present is mingled with the past and the ancient dreams and the painful events blend.

The Flavour of Memory FATHI ELBIS

Throughout his book, the author Fathi Elbis takes us on a tour recollecting the Palestinian plight, travelling through the camps from childhood to youth. Like the writer, writing settles nowhere and challenges the reader's imagination and senses in such a way that he can no longer distinguish between his location and the stroll he takes while reading the book.

This Man Must Die
TAOUFIK ABDELMOULA

"If France can provide 60,000 of my followers with arms, I will be able to destroy the Neo-Destour and exterminate the Fellagas." This was Cheikh Belgaroui's declaration on the 10th of June 1953. The revelation of historical events and the reference to real people throughout the story constitute the main objective of this book.

Hostility to Image
NIZAR CHAKROUN

Nowadays nobody could deny that the image has such an important role and impact on all aspects of life. We could not do without it or ignore what images suggest in our vision era. This book deals with the issue of censoring the image and to what extent it could be allowed in both Western and Eastern cultures.

Up to You to Decide

Arab Elites

ABU YDEROB ALMARZOUKI

Is there a rational explanation of the sterility Arab Elites are suffering from, no matter what the field of creation is, artistic, economic, scientific, natural or religious philosophy of being? Can the conflict between secularist and fundamentalist elites be strong enough to plunge them in a civil war, turn them away from focusing on essential problems, shunning creation and innovation in their fields?

Government's Legitimacy In the Era of Globalization (Secular vs. Religious fundamentalists)

ABU YDEROB ALMARZOUKI

This Article book analyzes the double sectarian controversy about the legitimacy of the political authorities: the initial controversy about the legitimacy of the political authorities. The analysis presupposes a deep scrutiny of the role the globalizing phenomena of politics and communication between civilizations are playing in the exacerbation of the Islamic civil war parallel to an almost universal civil war,
